

POLICE WILL BE NOTIFIED OF ALL AMBULANCE CALLS

NEW ARRANGEMENT WAS PUT INTO FORCE. TODAY
BY CHIEF OF POLICE LANCY AND ACTING FIRE
CHIEF LAUDER—RESULT OF ATTENTION CALLED TO FORMER LACK OF SYSTEM BY THE CAPITAL.

Arrangements were completed this morning by Chief of Police Lancy, whereby all emergency ambulance calls will be at once reported to the police.

This action is a result of the statement in yesterday's Capital, setting forth the lack of system that has been in effect up to the present time. When a reporter of the Capital called to see Chief Lancy this morning as to his opinion on the existing state of affairs, the Chief declared that the Capital had tried to blame the police for something for which they were not responsible.

Police Not to Blame
"You had a headline in your paper," declared the Chief, "which read 'The Police Were Tardy.' That was not the case, as in a few minutes after we received any intimation of the fact that the accident had occurred, two of our men were on the scene. It was not our fault that we were not notified sooner."

The Capital reporter then showed that it was not intended that any blame should be placed upon the police, but rather that attention should be called to the fact that when accidents occur, no matter how serious they are, they are not reported to the police. In the past the police have always been notified some little time after the accident takes place, either by a friend, a passer-by or a news-

SUDDEN DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

Norman May, Well Known and Popular Local Youth, Dies
at Wolf Creek

News of the death of Norman C. May, son of Charles May, of Edmonton, reached the city yesterday over the telephone of the G. T. P. from Wolf Creek, where he had gone to join the May construction camps.

It was only a few days ago since he started west and was then in apparently good health, but on Saturday he suffered a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, and it was believed that he was suddenly seized with another which caused his death.

Mr. May was 27 years of age and extremely popular. The last couple of years he had spent in his father's camps out west and had come to town for a vacation, going down to Cook's Lake.

The body was brought in this morning by a special train from Wolf Creek, and will be interred in Winnipeg where his mother, Mr. May's first wife, is buried.

ANOTHER INSANE

Edmonton Man Arrested in Calgary—
Mounted Police Cases

Last night in Calgary William Irons of Edmonton was arrested and will be brought here today and charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Information was laid against him by Thomas Davis, who stated that he had paid a shakedown for $50 which did not belong to him. The shakedown is a small one, situated in the north end of Edmonton.

Mrs. Brownhead, who was arrested in Vermilion and after a trial was judged insane and will be sent to Brandon today.

Night—Has Accepted Exhibition's
Invitation

(Special to The Capital)
Calgary, Aug. 19.—Baden-Powell's plans have been changed. He will leave Calgary for Edmonton next Saturday night.

Last night Manager Harrison of the Exhibition Association received the following reply from Major General Baden-Powell:

"Goldie R.C., August 18.—Gratefully accept invitation unless other arrangements made for me by scouts. He will be present at the Directors' luncheon, which will be held at 1:30 on Tuesday morning, and will be in order to show plenty of time before the opening ceremony which will take place at 1:45 p.m."

This morning the association received two hundred more entries for the fair, including a few more entries for the races.

MAY CARRY G.T.P. ASSESSMENTS UP

Company Will Likely Appeal to the Supreme Court for a Decision

Is the Part Under Discussion—
Are Local Improvements
Municipal Taxes?

The objection of the Grand Trunk Pacific to pay a local improvement tax on lot 116, r. 1, 6, will probably result in a test case before the Supreme Court of Alberta. The court of revision of special assessments discussed the matter among other things last night, but nothing definite was arrived at, and the matter will be further discussed on Monday night next.

The Grand Trunk are assessed this year for the paving and gutter, and curb on First street, which runs past the property which the company purchased from Revillon Brothers in fall of 1909. The street, apparently, was paved while the property was in the possession of the former owners.

Hector Cowan, solicitor for the railroad company, was present to contest the city's claim. He stated that as the tax was a municipal one and that as the company is exempt from all except school and water taxes, under the agreement with the city, the company is not liable. Mr. Cowan quoted a number of constitutional authorities to show that all taxes levied by a municipality are municipal taxes. In argument City Solicitor Brown quoted decisions of the United States Supreme court, to the effect that local improvement taxes are really not taxes at all, but that the city levying them merely steps in as a financial agent of property owners, and takes no step to see the improvements carried out for their benefit.

The Grand Trunk appealed against the assessment of the 40 feet of MacKenzie avenue south of the railroad on the company's property. In argument City Solicitor Brown quoted decisions of the United States Supreme court, to the effect that local improvement taxes are really not taxes at all, but that the city levying them merely steps in as a financial agent of property owners, and takes no step to see the improvements carried out for their benefit.

This morning a badly battered car, with its timbers shivered, was fixed by the city's mechanics, and was taken to the highway.

LORD CLINTON IS VISITOR IN CITY

Accompanied by Mr. Elphinstone,
Who Is Great Believer in Canada

NOT INTERESTED IN H.B.R.

Lord Clinton Gives Emphatic Denial to Much Circulated Rumor

"There is no truth in the report published that I am interested in the Hudson Bay Railway project, and as far as I know, none of the party of which I came with are in any way interested. We are here for nothing more than what appears on the surface."

Lord Clinton, of Devonshire, a man of immense wealth, and of considerable political importance in Britain, is a guest at the King Edward Hotel, and in the course of an interview this morning, made the above statement in contradiction to the reports, which have had considerable credence, to the effect that he was heavily interested in the Hudson Bay Railway, and other railroad ventures.

"We are here to look the country over, said his lordship. 'At the same time it is understood that Lord Clinton finds the country to be all that he expects he is required to inspect heavily in western Canada enterprises. Lord Clinton admits that he owns 'a few acres' in the west, which are located principally in Saskatchewan."

Political Situation
When asked about the political situation in Britain, Lord Clinton said that conditions were not so bad as they had been reported.

"The whole matter between the lords and the commons has been submitted to a conciliation board and a final understanding is expected. I do not know whether the powers of the lords will be curtailed or not. You know the feeling against the lords is not nearly so bitter as it has been made out to be, and what feeling there is, exists only in the large cities. The last election was not a bitter one by any means. I travelled all over the country and I did not notice any particularly hard feelings between the rival factions."

In politics Lord Clinton is a Tory and a tariff reformer.

"This is the first time that his lordship has been in Canada and he said he is much impressed."

"The sight of millions of acres under crops is most impressive," he said, "and you have magnificent crops up here. They are the best I have ever seen."

Lord Clinton is accompanied by the Hon. Mr. Elphinstone, who at the time was an owner of extensive lands in Manitoba.

Mr. Elphinstone is an absolute believer in the great future of Western Canada, and states that a great interest is being taken in Canada by British investors. He declares that the next big boom in Great Britain will be in Canadian securities, especially the big land companies.

Lord Clinton and Hon. Mr. Elphinstone, will remain in Canada for a couple of days, and then depart for the coast and Prince Rupert.

WINNIPEG BUILDING LOCK- OUT

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 19.—The union bricklayers and masons employed by the Lyall Mitchell company failed to respond when the call for them was given at seven o'clock this morning and the lockout arranged by the employers went into effect.

The masons held a meeting when reports were received, and it was decided to go ahead with the lockout.

HAYS DOESN'T TALK MUCH

Had Very Little to Say of Plans of Road—Believes In Edmonton

A galaxy of railroad and other industrial magnates arrived in Edmonton last night on a special train from the east. The party is making a general tour of the Dominion, a sort of a "specially conducted tour," under the direction of Chas. M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Included in the party are Alfred W. Smithers, chairman of the board of directors of the G. T. R., London, England; Sir George Doughty, former English M. P., and Lady Doughty, G. B. Hunter of the shipbuilding firm of Swan & Hunter, Wallasey, England, James Carruthers, Montreal; J. E. Dalrymple, traffic manager G. T. P.; J. W. Laid, freight traffic manager G. T. P.; Thornton Davidson, son-in-law of Mr. Hays and Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Hays and daughter, and others to the number of thirty.

No Electrification
Mr. Hays, when seen by The Capital shortly after the arrival of the special, had nothing new to impart in regard to the Grand Trunk Pacific. "Things are progressing very favorably in every department," said Mr. Hays.

"There is any truth in the report that the G. T. P. intend to electrify the road in the rocky mountain division?" asked the reporter.

"No. There is no truth in it at all," was the definite reply.

Impressed? They All Are
"I am more and more impressed with Edmonton each time I visit it," said Mr. Hays, "and I adhere to my former statement and believe that this city will be the largest west of Winnipeg in a very short time."

This opinion was agreed to by Mr. James Carruthers, the prominent grain exporter, of Montreal.

"The crops in this district are the finest we have seen on the tour," he added. When we approached Clover Bar, we were more than agreeably surprised with conditions. I think that the Edmonton district has been especially favored this season."

Mr. E. J. Chamberlain, general manager of the G. T. P., when seen by the reporter, was also reticent in matters connected with the road.

"I hate to talk to the press when all these distinguished people are around," he said.

GEORGE B. HUNTER DID INTERVIEWING

Reporter Thought He Was Going to Question Visitor, But Didn't

HE GOT LOTS OF ADVICE
"Make Money, Then Get a Wife and a Farm," Said Noted
Shipbuilder

"I'm taking this trip purely for recreation," said Mr. Hunter of Swan & Hunter, Wallasey, Newcastle-on-Tyne, when a Capital reporter climbed up and heard him on the step of his private car.

"You have no plans in view for the Pacific Coast?" asked the reporter.

"How do politics stand in England at present?" was the next question.

"We'll have a general election very soon," was the quick response. "I am a very strong supporter of colonial preference. It seems to me to be the best thing for this country. What do they think about it out here?"

"Very much divided," the reporter replied, "the farmers are strong for free trade and the merchants for protection."

"Well," said Sir George, "colonial preference is the best thing for this country, it seems to me. The wheat would be two shillings cheaper, that much saved. Over in England, they call me the Demosthenes of tariff reform. I'm a very strong supporter of Mr. Chamberlain."

Sir George then turned the conversation back to Edmonton and was very interested in hearing about the city and the surrounding district and its possibilities for the future.

"And I suppose the city's prosperity will keep increasing and you'll have another boom like the one a few years ago?" was Sir George's parting remark.

"We certainly hope so," was the reply.

The reporter by this time had given up trying to interview Mr. Hunter, who talks with a slight Scotch accent. Instead, Mr. Hunter did all the interviewing.

Catchism Starts
"Why don't you try farming?" he repeated.

"I don't think I should like farmer's life, Mr. Hunter," replied the reporter, doubtfully.

"Why?"

"It's a lonely one."

"Well, then, get a wife and you will be all right," was the confident advice.

"But it needs capital to keep a wife and a farm, too."

"Work, my boy and make it," was the sage parting advice and Mr. Hunter suddenly arose and turned away.

"Excuse me, Mr. Hunter," said the reporter to the middle of his back as he was going away.

"Well?"

"Is your firm going to put up ship-building yards on the Pacific coast?" should the government decide to build their own boats?"

The Answer at Last
"Well," said Mr. Hunter, "we have no plans at present but of course a business man even on a recreation trip always has an eye open for business. You see, it would be better to have the yards on the Pacific Coast because the Atlantic is so close to the English yards, besides there would be tremendous expense bringing the ships from the Atlantic to the Pacific and a large risk, too, that would all be done away with."

MARVELLOUS!! MARVELLOUS!!

Was the Way Sir George Doughty
Described the Country
Along the G.T.P.

COLONIAL PREFERENCE

Will Be the Best Thing for This Country—A Strong Supporter of Chamberlain

"Marvelous!! Simply marvelous!!" were Sir George Doughty's words when speaking of the country he had seen, when passing through along the line of the G. T. P.

"Is this your first visit to the country," asked a Capital reporter.

"Oh, no, I was through six years ago, but then of course, I went through Calgary."

"And you noticed many changes?"

"Well, of course, this country is new to me, but by what I have seen of it, I think it will progress at a rapid rate. It must, with the large tracts of good land which is fed by this new Grand Trunk line."

Sir George and Lady Doughty are on a recreation tour through the country, though Sir George has at the end of his trip a study to make of the fishing industries on the Pacific Coast. He is a member of parliament for Grimsby, the great fishing port on the east coast of England, and headquarters for the North Sea trawlers.

"How do politics stand in England at present?" was the next question.

"We'll have a general election very soon," was the quick response. "I am a very strong supporter of colonial preference. It seems to me to be the best thing for this country. What do they think about it out here?"

"Very much divided," the reporter replied, "the farmers are strong for free trade and the merchants for protection."

"Well," said Sir George, "colonial preference is the best thing for this country, it seems to me. The wheat would be two shillings cheaper, that much saved. Over in England, they call me the Demosthenes of tariff reform. I'm a very strong supporter of Mr. Chamberlain."

Sir George then turned the conversation back to Edmonton and was very interested in hearing about the city and the surrounding district and its possibilities for the future.

"And I suppose the city's prosperity will keep increasing and you'll have another boom like the one a few years ago?" was Sir George's parting remark.

HIGH COST OF LABOR TO AFFECT CAPITAL

Chairman of Board of Directors of
G. T. P. Expresses an Opinion

IT WILL PROVE FATAL

For Canada For It Will Check
British Capital, Thinks Mr.
Smithers

"The high cost of labor at present existing in Canada, will, if it keeps up, be the means of effectively and completely checking the influx of British capital into this country."

This emphatic statement was made by Mr. Alfred W. Smithers of England, chairman of the board of directors of the Grand Trunk Railway, and who is one of the party of distinguished railway magnates, which arrived in Edmonton last evening. He made the statement in The Capital in an interview, and it was made with earnest conviction.

"Can you imagine the effect of a withdrawal of British capital from this country?" continued Mr. Smithers. "It would be a stupendous loss to Canada and a dire calamity, and it is sure to come if conditions do not change."

Mr. Smithers went on to compare the cost of labor in this country and in Europe.

Three Times Greater
"Why, it is over three times as large," he said, "and there is no necessity for it. I have been informed by prominent men closely connected with labor interests that the present state of affairs is likely to continue for ever. If it does—well, the result will be as I have stated."

"Labor people think that capitalists are merely looking for their own pockets, but that is the opinion of a blind man. Capitalists as a rule like to receive a fair return for their investments, but they are not getting it, and when a capitalist does not make a reasonable profit in one place he is going to try another. The withdrawal of British capital from Canada will not only tend to materially arrest the progress of the country, but will also effect all classes of people, including the labor people, who raise such a hue and cry about being down trodden by greedy capitalists, by reducing industry, and thus lessening the demand for labor."

"The labor people are cutting off their own noses to spite their faces," said Mr. Smithers.

No Danger of Another Strike
In speaking of the recent Grand Trunk strike, which has been terminated through efforts of Hon. Mr. L. M. King, minister of labor, Mr. Smithers stated that there had been no ill after effects, as far as the railway was concerned.

"What work was delayed, was only postponed," he said, "and the railway is now in full operation again."

"Is there any foundation for the rumor that the strike may be called again, owing to the fact that some of the men were not taken back?" asked The Capital.

"I hardly think it likely," returned Mr. Smithers. "I think that matters will travel smoothly from now on."

Mr. Smithers is on the annual tour of inspection of the Grand Trunk railways. This is the first time, however, that he has engaged on this work, as Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson has in the past performed the inspection.

Mr. Smithers succeeded Sir Charles as chairman of the board of directors, in January.

Called on the Premier
The party of magnates, who have been accompanying Mr. Chas. M. Hays and Mr. A. W. Smithers, in their inspection tour of the Grand Trunk railway left in their special train on Monday for the coast, via the C. P. R. After visiting Vancouver, the party will travel to Prince Rupert on one of the new Grand Trunk Pacific steamers. On their return from the coast a second and longer visit will be made to Edmonton.

This morning, the members of the party were driven about the city, while Mr. Hays and Mr. Smithers called on Premier Sifton at his office, and paid their respects.

MINERS WON FROM CALGARY

This Loss Puts Edmonton Head of League, Carney and Wheeler in Mix-up

Calgary, Aug. 19.—Geehan, who left the team yesterday, returned to his allegiance and the mound tonight, turning out a swell article of curves and control, but despite this and a home run by Smith, the Miners put on extra runs across the plate and won. Carney sought to choke off Umpire Wheeler and was sent from the field. The trouble arose over dissatisfaction with disputed strikes, which Wheeler called on Stanley and the dissatisfaction was so general that Wheeler had to be safeguarded from the excited fans by three stalwart constables when leaving the field.

RUGBY LEAGUE IS ASSURED

Tigers, Calgary Y.M.C.A., Edmonton, Lethbridge and Perhaps Saskatoon Will Join

Rugby talk is rampant in the large cities of Alberta, and the enthusiasm is extending over into Saskatchewan. Saskatoon, bubbling over with baseball madness, now wishes to take up football, and the "Phonics" of that city says: "Rugby football is a great game, needs lots of brain and muscle to play it, and we've got all kinds of both here. Get moving Rugbyites!"

That is the right idea, and Edmonton will be only too glad to get into a league. If the circuit promises to become uninvited, divisions can be formed, and the champions of each district play off for the championship and the Bellerophon Cup.

Lethbridge treats favorably the league idea, and has already commenced practice. Calgary Tigers and Y.M.C.A. are anxious to enter, and turned out yesterday for the first work-out. Hilarious is all tied up, sending an association football team to Toronto for the "People's Shield" games, so will be out of the rugby arena this fall.

Matters are starting to move around Edmonton, and the Eskimos will hold their annual meeting early next week. Practices will be started immediately after the new officers are elected.

THE REASON WHY SKEELS
WONT JOIN DETROIT TIGERS

Jenning's Scout Gives Some Inside Information on At-tempted Sale of the Indian

By H. G. Salsinger.

A few weeks ago a report was started in Detroit, that the Tigers would save a real big-league Indian pitcher next year. The name given was Skeels. This report, and that Skeels had been signed and cost the Detroit club $1,200. No official report of the purchase was made and the matter dropped, but information received from the north-west puts the Skeels "sale" into the real comedy of the game.

Skeels is not a myth, but everything else in the report, even the promise that Skeels would be another "Chief" Bender is. The tale of Skeels and his near-escape to fame is told by a man who was on the spot and saw the "sale" made.

This Indian pitches up in that section of the country where they start games at 7 o'clock and finish them at 9. It's called the "Twilight League," a happy name.

Twilight for Skeels

They think quite a lot of Skeels and here's hoping they continue to think quite a lot of him for there is little chance of Skeels ever passing out of the twilight region and trying to find out how many errors were made in the box score before the hour which he now escapes getting into his uniform.

The Detroit club heard about Skeels and a scout was sent up to look him over. The scout had a talk with the president and an exhibition by Skeels was promised.

The game had already started when the scout arrived at the ball park that evening and another man was in the box. The local club was not making much advance while the opposing team was. About the seventh inning the scout heard a loud noise behind the grandstand, much like that of a ball striking a glove. "They're warming up Skeels," he concluded, "and I may get a chance to see the Indian work a couple of innings."

Skeels' Chance

Well, Skeels did warm up for nearly two innings. The ninth innings saw bases full and two men out. The pitcher was taken out and Skeels walked to the mound. The president of the local club leaned over to the scout:

"Of course these batters coming up are all weak hitters and will be easy for Skeels. 'Don't judge by that.'"

The first batter up whaled the ball to left for a couple of bases and incidentally emptied the bases. The next batter connected for a single to right. The next weak hitter smashed one through the pitcher's box for a triple. The innings ended when an outfielder made a remarkable catch of a long fly.

He "Wasn't Warned Up."

"That your man Skeels?" asked the scout.

"Du he wasn't warmed up, and you don't want to consider that. Wait till to-morrow and let him get the full game. Let him get warmed up well."

"All right," replied the scout. "You take Mr. Skeels and put him in the oven right now and keep him there till to-morrow night at 7 o'clock. And you have him white hot."

The next evening the scout appeared at the ball lot half an hour before game time. The manager was warming him up. They saw the scout so they moved over to a position in front of the box where the scout sat.

Now, there are catchers who can catch a ball in a certain position and cause it to sound like the report of a gaiting gun. The manager-catcher had that knack.

Like Sunset Salute.

The first ball Skeels pitched sounded like a sunset salute at Fort Wayne. The next was a repitition.

This scout had followed base ball for some time. This valley from the catcher's mit was nothing new to him and he guessed the reason for it, but he smiled and enjoyed the exhibition.

Thinking that he was making an impression with Skeels, the catcher resorted to something new and the humor of which even the layman will appreciate. Rubbing his hand as though Skeels' delivery was too fast, he walked over to the Indian and in a voice that could be heard 300 feet away, bawled out:

What "Queered" Skeels

"Gee, whiz, Skeels, don't put so much on that ball, it won't stand it."

The scout fell out of his seat. The president rushed to his side.

"Isn't he a wonder, that Skeels?"

"Wonderful!" repeated the scout. "He is. I wouldn't give you a nickel for a dozen of the likes of him. They have handed it to me from Portland to Portland, but they just pulled one on me now that Oskosh in its palm-iest days never thought of trying."

The ball won't stand it—go-o-o-d night, also go-o-o-d-bye. I'm on my way to dear old Kansas. Give Skeets my best regards and kindest wishes and tell the catcher he can make Dr. Cok look as though he was tied to a post."

No, Detroit has not signed Skeels, this "Second Bender."—Detroit News.

TOP OF THE LEAGUE.

Hurray for the Indians! Hurray for Deacon White and thanks to Manager Lynch!

By virtue of Calgary's defeat last night at the hands of Lethbridge, Edmonton leads the League by a percentage of 727 to Calgary's 714.

And we are going to stay there. With our pitchers going like well-oiled machinery and the boys hitting behind them there is no doubt the pennant will be ours. We have said so all along, but there seemed to be some doubting Thomases in the cow town.

When the pennant flutters proudly from a flag staff at Diamond Park, we will forgive all the sneers and veiled innuendoes that the Calgary press has hurled at us this season.

The Huskies have held the leadership since the inauguration of the second series, but the Eskimos have kept right at their knitting, and to-day they receive the reward for their hard work, by taking the lead.

The boys returned to-day and meet the Henry Pickers from Saskatoon at Diamond Park. Game called at 6:15.

To-morrow there will be a double-header at 3 and 6:15.

AGRICULTURAL WRITERS ARE HERE

Are Delighted With Conditions All Through the West Country

TAKING TRIP SERIOUSLY

And Study Land at Close Range—What They Write Will Be Worth Reading

The party of well known journalists, editors of prominent agricultural publications, which is making a tour of western Canada under the direction of Herbert Vanderhoof, who also organized the Cornwall press excursion, arrived in Edmonton last night, and left this morning.

In the party are a collection of writers whose impressions of western Canada will have a lot to do with influencing Americans in regard to Canada, as the publications in which they will announce their opinions are spread all over the United States and the statements contained therein will reach nearly every community.

A committee from the board of trade met the train at Oliver on its arrival there yesterday afternoon, and took the party on an automobile tour of the surrounding country with which the visitors were much impressed.

Members of the Party

The party is composed as follows: Herbert Vanderhoof, Winnipeg, Manitoba, editor of the Canada West Monthly; A. W. Fulton, Springfield, Mass., editor of the New England Homestead, a paper having the largest circulation of any agricultural journal in America; and the American Agriculturalist; Clarence D. Strow, Chicago, Ill., managing editor of Farm Life and National Fruit Grower and Gardener; Frank G. Moorehead, Des Moines, Iowa, editor of the Iowa Homestead, Wisconsin Farmer and the Farmer and Stockman; Emory E. Critchfield, Chicago, Ill., an expert in agricultural advertising; J. B. Montgomery, Omaha, Neb., editor of the Farm Magazine and Rural Weekly; West, Chicago, agricultural editor of the Chicago Record Herald; J. B. Morden, B.A., professor of agriculture in the University of Manitoba, and C. W. Speers, Western Immigration Agent, who joined the party at Saskatoon.

Wheat! Wheat! What!
From the statements made to the press by members of the party, it can be seen that each and every one of them were greatly surprised with Western Canada conditions, and that their admiration is unbounded.

"Wheat, wheat, wherever, is what has struck us most during our two weeks' tour," is what Mr. Fulton said, while the other members of the party made various other expressions of favorable opinion.

"We have seen some districts where the community has suffered from drought," said Mr. Fulton, "but in a general way they look awfully good to me, and the other members of our party."

"Cultivation has a great deal to do with good crops," continued Mr. Fulton, "Why, I have seen one good field of wheat which would likely yield a high average, adjoined by one which would yield an average corresponding to low, white soil and climatic conditions were alike."

Mixed Farming
Mr. Fulton sounded a note of good advice when he said that the north west must be in mind the matter of diversified farming. If a farmer is to raise crop after crop of wheat in the same field, the soil is bound to play out. Mixed farming is the thing.

Mr. Vanderhoof stated that the members of the party are thoroughly enjoying themselves, and are immensely pleased with the country.

"These men," he said, "go out into the country, mix with the farmers and view the land from close range. On their return to the city they write their honest opinion about it. They are taking the tour seriously and their opinion will be worth reading."

This morning the party were taken about the town in automobiles and shortly afterwards left via the G. T. P. for the east.

AT THE EMPIRE.

Pixley and Luder's famous musical comedy, "The Burgomaster" will be the strong attraction at the Empire Theatre for six nights starting Monday 22. Gus C. Weinburg, the original burgomaster is the featured member of the large presenting company of 50 people. The costumeing is exceptionally handsome, having been made by Marshall Field of Chicago, for this production. Several changes in the book have been made to freshen it, and Gus C. Weinburg has interpolated several new numbers which are already big hits.

The present company at the Empire, Sherman's Musical Comedy Company, will move to the Edmonton Opera House and will start their six weeks run at that popular house Monday, August 22.

The Edmonton Opera House in the future will be known as the Lyceum Theatre, and will be under the same management as the Empire.

The same high standard of shows will be produced there by this company and the same policy will prevail with two shows at night and a complete change of program twice a week, on Mondays and Thursdays. There will also be the usual matinee every day.

A GOOD CIRCUS

If the reports from other localities may be accepted as a criterion the management of the Edmonton Exhibition is to be congratulated on having secured the Al. G. Barnes Big Three Ring Wild Animal Circus, and associate attractions, to provide the amusement features in connection with the forthcoming mid-summer festival.

The organization has appeared in connection with all of the more prominent provincial fairs, including the Alberta Provincial Exhibition at Calgary, and the Inter-Provincial Fair, at Brandon. From here it will move westward to the coast, where it will appear in connection with the autumn festivals at Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster. While the big animal circus is the real feature there are innumerable secondary attractions, fun factories and riding devices, of a scope and character calculated to meet the requirements of the most exacting amusement lover.

To commit sin is human frailty; to persist in it is a devilish obstinacy.—Bernard.

And One Cough Caused the Remark That Caused the Blow

A peculiar little cough caused the biggest row on Tuesday night that has occurred since the battle of Waterloo.

Alex. Symmottink's cough was bothering him a little more than usual that day, and a number of men who were working with him on First street, took pleasure in making fun of him. Alex. could stand that all right but when Mr. A. Graw took a hand in it, it was beyond human endurance.

"Alex. coughed like a monkey," said Graw.

Alex. spat at him and missed. Graw spat back and also missed, but he followed it up with a blow between Alex's two eyes.

After Magistrate Byers carefully sifted the evidence submitted he decided to impose a fine of a dollar and costs on Graw.

BRENNAN FOR SEATTLE

Northwestern Club Is Hot After Our Star Third Sacker—Other Deals in View

When seen by the Capital this morning, Manager Deacon White confirmed the report of Pete Morse's sale to St. Louis and said the Eskimo short stop would report to Bresnahan at the close of the Western Canada League schedule.

Seattle of the Northwestern League is hot after Jack Brennan and offer good hard cash. Johnny will probably join them in a week or so. Several class A clubs are after Pitcher De, but a deal has practically been closed whereby Slim goes to the majors. The ranks of the Eskimos will be further depleted as nearly all the men have been spoken for.

Deacon was feeling in a very optimistic mood this morning and said, with a depth of feeling, "We will win the championship, sure." And every fan in Edmonton will join in the chorus, "You bet."
